BANK ROW, NORTH SIDE COURT HOUSE.

STOCK AND CROP.

—W. C. Terhune, of Mercer county, has bought this season 1,500 suckling mules at an average price of $30 per head.

—The recent rains have put the ground in good condition for sowing wheat.

—The Woodford Sun says there is a disposition among the farmers of that county to sow less wheat and more barley this fall.

—Jas. Ballard bought the past week of James M. Pickrell 290 acres of land near the Clark and Bourbon line for $28,000. This is a portion of the W. H. Benick farm and is finely improved.

—Clark Co. Democrat.

—In Woodford, W. I. Arnold bought of Simon Weil 50 good grade yearling cattle at 3½ cents, the seller retaining an option on the purchase for the latter part of June, 1903.

—Capt. W. A. Gaines, of Georgetown, has purchased the John Simpson farm of 200 acres, near Centerville. Price about $50 per acre.

—Winston Letton, agent for J. W. Wright (G.) sold to Capt. Frank Hall, 77 acres of land lying on the West side of the Lexington and Maysville pike, at $100 per acre.

—Kendall & Cason bought of N. L. Renaker, 20 head of fine cattle, averaging 1,200 lbs., at $4.50 per 100—Cynthiana Democrat.

CHILDREN'S School Shoes that are made of the right kind of stuff—good, solid leather. Prices right, too.

AMUSEMENTS.

—Our amusement loving people will have the pleasure of witnessing one of the best minstrel performances ever given in this city, on to-night, when the great Quinlan & Wall's Imperial Minstrels will appear at the Grand Opera House. The company is a large one and is said to be up-to-date and a little beyond. The first part scene will be something novel and will introduce a number of comedians who will crack jokes that will be new and fresh, while the vocal contingent is said to be made up of the very best of singers.

Prominent among the comedians and dancers in the company is Gov. Bowen, who is well-known in this city, having appeared here with the Elks' minstrels last season, and who has many warm friends here in Paris. Also with the company is Mr. Walter Brower, a Louisville boy, who will sing, "In the Valley of Old Kentucky."

IT IS TO-DAY, NOT YESTERDAY.

"The King is dead! Long live the King." Beethoven, Bach, Wagner and all the great Masters of the past are held in highest reverence by DeBaugh, but in making up his programs, they have been made conspicuous by their absence. DeBaugh's is essentially a 20th Century Band, and they play 20th Century music. The public understands the bright, catchy, sparkling music of the day and it is popular with the majority of the people.

If DeBaugh has a mission he deems it to be to entertain and amuse rather than to endeavor to educate the people. That he and his band have achieved undoubted popularity and success along these lines, is an indisputable fact. To hear this band play popular music, is to hear it played as you have never heard it played before.

This splendid attraction will be at the Grand Opera House, in Paris, on next Thursday night. Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.
